for the week following Easter, is the dance which will be given by the Phi Kappa Psi of Indiana at the Claypool Thursday evening, April 7, in honor of the visiting mem bers here for the Grand Arch Council This will be the first ball given in th handsome assembly room of the new hotel, and the appointments and decorations will be elaborate and beautiful. Invitations for the ball were issued last week, a large number going out of town, and there will be many visiting girls among the guests. The patronnesses for the ball will act as chaperons for the young women, and will arrange for their attendance, as the greater number of the men at the dance will, Miss Nellie Shover, who attends the of course, be from out of town. Owing to circumstances, a plan followed in similar affairs will be adopted. There will be no programmes, but each girl will be provided by the dance committee or the chaperons with a partner for the first dance. The dance will be followed by a waltz circle, ending with a "grand right and left," following which it will be assumed that all the guests have been introduced, and the men are at liberty to ask the girls for dances. Mr. Edward Knight is at the head of the committee on arrangements, and there will be a floor committee. A meeting of the patronesses will be held next Tuesday morning at 10:30 at the Claypool to make arrangements for the ball.
